CITY AND COUNTY OF THE CITY OF EXETER

CATTLE MARKET BYELAWS

Byelaws made under Section 61 of the Food and Drugs Act, 1955 by the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City and County of the City of Exeter, acting by the Council with respect to the Exeter Cattle Market.

1. In these Byelaws, except where the context otherwise requires :—

   " the Council " means the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City and County of the City of Exeter acting by the Council;
   " market hours " means the hours appointed by the Council for the holding of a market;
   " sell " and " sale " include exposing and exposure for sale;
   " the Cattle Market " means the Cattle Market provided and maintained by the Council;
   " vehicle " includes any mechanically-propelled vehicle, cycle, tricycle, car, motor-cycle, wagon and trailer.

2. Where the Council—

   (a) appropriate any part of the market place for the sale of animals or articles or any class of animals or articles, or for sales by auction, and

   (b) display in a conspicuous place a public notice to that effect, no person shall sell animals or articles, or hold sales by auction, except in accordance with the terms of that appropriation.

3. No person shall bring any animals or articles into the market place, for purposes of sale more than half an hour before the market opens or allow them to remain there more than half an hour after the market closes.

4. On any day appointed for the holding of a market—

   (a) no vehicle shall be halted in any avenue or passage in the market place or in the immediate approaches thereto, for longer than is reasonably required for the loading or unloading of animals or articles except in the car or lorry park provided ;

   (b) no private car shall, except for loading or unloading as permitted by the preceding provisions of this byelaw, be parked in the market place between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. except in the car park provided ;

   (c) no person shall bring into the market place or the immediate approaches thereto, or allow to stand therein any animals or articles in such a manner as to cause obstruction.

5. No person shall remain in any Sale Ring in the Cattle Market while such Sale Ring is being used for the sale of cattle : Provided that this Byelaw shall not prohibit the owner of the cattle offered for sale and one drover nominated by the person selling the cattle from remaining in the Sale Ring for the purpose of controlling the cattle.

6. No person shall go or remain on any auctioneer's rostrum or platform in the Cattle Market during the sale of cattle other than :—

   (a) the auctioneer ;

   (b) any member of the auctioneer's staff duly authorised by him ;

   (c) any person authorised by the Council.

7. No person shall drive a vehicle in the Cattle Market at a speed exceeding 10 m.p.h.

8. Where the Council by notice specify the direction in which any animals or vehicles shall be taken or driven in any part of the Cattle Market, no person shall take or drive or cause to be taken or driven any animals or vehicles other than in the direction so specified.

9. No person shall cause or suffer any dog belonging to him to enter or remain in the Cattle Market unless such dog is attached to a lead or is under his control.

10. Any person who offends against any of the provisions of these Byelaws shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding Five Pounds.

11. The Byelaws with respect to the Cattle Market which were made by the Council on the 26th day of August, 1955, are hereby revoked.

THE COMMON SEAL OF THE MAYOR, ALDERMEN AND CITIZENS OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF THE CITY OF EXETER was hereunto affixed this Sixth day of June, 1966, in the presence of :—

ADDITIONAL BY-LAW

For the BETTER REGULATION of the EXETER CATTLE MARKET.

The Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City and County of the City of Exeter, acting by the Council, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by the Statute passed in the first year of the reign of King George the Fourth, and intituled "an Act for removing the Markets held within the City of Exeter, and for providing another Market Place, or other Market Places, in lieu thereof," and also in exercise of all other powers (if any) them hereunto enabling, do hereby make the following By-law for the better regulation of the Exeter Cattle Market, and declare that the same shall come into operation on the First day of July, One thousand nine hundred and eleven, viz. :—

ANIMALS UNFIT FOR HUMAN FOOD.

No person shall bring into the Cattle Market any animal, which in the opinion of the Veterinary Inspector appointed by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City and County of the City of Exeter, is old, emaciated, or diseased, and unfit for human food.

Penalty.—Every person who shall offend against the foregoing by-law shall be liable for every such offence to a PENALTY OF FIVE POUNDS.

Provided, nevertheless, that the Justices or Court before whom any complaint may be made or any proceedings may be taken in respect of any such offence, may, if they think fit, adjudge the payment as a penalty of any sum less than the full amount of the penalty imposed by this by-law.

SEALED with the Common Seal of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens, at a Council Meeting duly convened on the seventh day of June, One thousand nine hundred and eleven.
