

Electoral Services

Privacy Notice

How we use your personal information

We use your information so that we can compile an electoral register and conduct elections, referenda and other democratic activities as required by law. We have a legal duty to provide this service.

What we will do with it

Your information will be held and used by the Electoral Registration Officer and Returning Officer (or equivalent). We will only share information as required by law, with our contracted suppliers who provide services, which are required to enable us to meet our statutory obligations.

To verify your identity, the data you provide in respect of electoral registration will be processed by the Individual Electoral Registration Digital Service managed by the Cabinet Office. As part of this process your data will be shared with the Department of Work and Pensions and the Cabinet Office suppliers that are data processors for the Individual Electoral Registration Digital Service. You can find more information about this here: <https://www.registertovote.service.gov.uk/register-to-vote/privacy>

How long will we keep your information

We will keep your information for as long as required in legislation. When we no longer need to keep your information, we will securely and confidentially dispose of it.

More information

For more information about how we look after your information or to find out more about your rights, go to www.exeter.gov.uk/DataProtection or contact the Data Protection Officer on 01392 265257.